Hey man, I would really appreciate an extension on paying back. The company I got hired on at put a hire hold on any new employees until further notice, so I don't have any alternate income. I did apply for unemployment insurance under the special covid-19 exception. So I'm hoping I get approved.

Ok no problem! Let's talk in the next day or two! Would you be up for some online training with clients? We are temporarily headed that direction.
